The more you view the work of Daido Moriyama, the more it envelops you. At first, it can be easy to disregard as out of focus, sloppy, aimless, but over time the content begins to grow on you. Born in Osaka, Japan in 1938, Moriyama moved around frequently due to his father's job as an insurance salesman.

Daido Moriyama - A Stray Dog

Moriyama is a legend in the realm of street and snapshot photography (and a fascinating amalgam of both) but he definitely had a heyday in the 60's and thereabouts - while he still shoots all the time today, he isn't necessarily producing the same kind of ground-breaking work that he used to. perhaps it's just because the ground has been broken.
